AFFGS provides educational and other support to families who have built, or plan to build, their families through adoption and fosters understanding of adoption related issues. AFFGS supports a newsletter, the AWAIT! support group for waiting families, monthly playgroups, and various support and education oriented events throughout the year. Membership fee waivers are available for special circumstances. Please call and leave a message if you'd like additional information.

- Application for new membership (include a check to "AFFGS" for $35)
